Additional Ways to Transfer Interest: There may be other ways to transfer your interest while avoiding the process of probate, such as a Court Order Determining Succession to Property under California Probate Code sec. 13150 (“13150”) or an Affidavit re Real Property of Small Value under California Probate Code sec. 13200 (“13200”), et cetera; however, we do recommend that you seek an attorney to better assist you with all the options available to you. The 13150 and 13200 must be recorded in ALL counties where the properties are located. We do not accept Affidavits re Collection or Transfer of Personal Property under California Probate Code sec. 13100. Additionally, please note that in lieu of a copy of the Trust Agreement, we will accept a Certification of Trust under California Probate Code sec. 18100.5.

W9, 587, and 590

Additionally, please complete and return a Form W-9 and either a Form 587 or Form 590. The Form 587 is for Non-California residents and the Form 590 is for California residents. Please note: Without a completed Form W-9 and accurate tax identification number, we will have to withhold a 28% federal tax from your payments. Please note: Without completed Form 590, we will have to withhold a 7% state tax from California residents with a P.O. Box. Non-California residents will have a 7% state tax withheld, unless the Owner turns a Form 588 into the State of California, the State of California grants the Owner’s waiver request, and the Owner sends a copy of the letter to CRC.

Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) Form

Additionally, please complete and return our Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) Form if you would like to receive any future payments via direct deposit. Please note: You will need to provide a copy of a voided check with the returned EFT Form.
